Raleigh, Saturday, February 29, 1868.

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION OF THE CONSERVATIVE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a chairman and thirty members—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The committee shall have power to maintain its organization by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registrations, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

PLATFORM.

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial department are equal and co ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal offices.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudices against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

The North Carolinian.

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
This is my own, my native land."

WM. A. HEARNE, JNO. W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

Raleigh, Saturday, February 29, 1868.

The State Executive Committee of the Conservative party met in this city yesterday for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various State offices created by the constitution now in process of formation by the Constitutional Convention so-called. After mature deliberation the following gentlemen were placed in nomination for the positions attached to their respective names, and on the day of election the people will demonstrate their confidence in the ticket by giving as will startle the miscreants who seek to enslave the white men of the State, by establishing a government founded upon the support of ignorant and improvident negroes.

We have not the time, owing to the lateness of the hour at which the committee adjourned, to allude to the nominations in detail. The name of VANCE alone is an earnest of victory. He needs no introduction to the people of North Carolina. They know him, love him:

For Governor:
ZEBULON B. VANCE.

For Lieutenant Governor:
EDWARD D. HALL.
of New Hanover.

For Attorney General:
SION H. ROGERS,

of Randolph.

For Secretary of State:
ROBERT W. BEST,
of Greene.

For Auditor of Accounts:
S. W. BURGIN,
of Buncombe.

For Public Treasurer:
KEMP P. BATTLE,
of Wake.

For Chief Justice of North Carolina:
RICHMOND M. PEARSON.

For Associate Justices of the Supreme Court:
WILL. H. BATTLE, of Orange,
EDWIN G. READE, of Person,
(and if the number be increased to five,)
MATT. E. MANLY, of Craven,
A. S. MERRIMON, of Buncombe.

FOR SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES.

First District:
DAVID A. BARNES,
of Northampton.

Second District:
E. J. WARREN,
of Beaufort.

Eleventh District:
JOHN L. BAILEY,
of Buncombe.

Twelfth District:
ALLEN T. DAVIDSON, of Macon.

THE Democrats of Kentucky assembled in the city of Frankfort on the 22nd inst. to nominate a candidate for Governor, a vacancy having occurred by the death of that sterling patriot and statesman, the lamented John L. Helm. One hundred and twenty-four of the one hundred and twenty-eight counties of the State were represented—an unparalled event in the history of Kentucky politics.

The Hon. John W. Stevenson, Lieutenant Governor, who, since the death of Gov. Helm has discharged the duties of the Executive Department, was nominated for Governor by acclamation. He came forward subsequently and accepted the nomination in a speech, thoroughly patriotic and Democratic.

The following are the resolutions adopted by the convention:

Resolved, That the platform of principles adopted by the convention of 1st of May, 1866, and readopted by the convention of 22d February, 1867, is hereby reaffirmed by the Democracy of Kentucky.

2d. That the unconditional restoration of the Southern States to their free and equal enjoyment of their rights in the Federal Union is indispensable to the peace, happiness and prosperity of the country.

3d. That a declaration of universal amnesty is demanded by every consideration of statesmanship, patriotism and justice, and Kentucky cannot be satisfied so long as a single one of her sons is deprived of any rights guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States and of this Commonwealth.

4th. That this convention, in obedience to the voice of the people of Kentucky, hereby presents the Hon. Geo. H. Pendleton, of Ohio, as their choice for President of the United States, and our delegates to the National Convention are hereby instructed to use all honorable means to secure his nomination, and to vote as a unit therefor. Reposing, however, the highest confidence in their wisdom and discretion, and believing that the success of the Democratic party is essential to the preservation of constitutional liberty, we hereby pledge, on behalf of the Democracy of Kentucky, an earnest and cordial support to the nominee of the convention.

After the adoption of these resolutions, the convention appointed delegates to the National Democratic Convention, electors for the various districts and the State at large and adjourned, after a session eminently harmonious and enthusiastic.

THE HAPPY FAMILY,
—OR—
THE CAPITOL MONKEY SHOW!
(BY OUR SPECIAL REPORTER UNDER THE TABLE.)

[The reader is particularly requested to remember the fact that no Reporter for this paper is allowed on the floor, in the halls or in the galleries of the Convention, and consequently our reports are made from under the table, behind the scenes, or as may be otherwise ordered and convenient.]

FORTIETH DAY.

FRIDAY, Feb. 28.

The performance commenced at the usual hour, the "animiles" coming to time rather slowly.

The committee on Internal Improvement was permitted to sit during the session of the Convention to-day.

RESOLUTIONS, &C.

Mr. Ellis, a resolution that the mail matter sent by the Convention at the expense of the State is without precedent, and should be stopped at once. [Splendid resolution, Mr. Ellis.—Yankee interlopers and villains like Ashley, the Frenches, Tourgee, Heaton and others, have enjoyed the franking privilege, at the expense of the honest people of North Carolina, quite long enough.] Lies over.

Mr. Andrews, a resolution authorizing the State Treasurer to pay Sol. Bragg $6 for services rendered the Convention.

CALENDER.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, an ordinance allowing the widow of any testator to enter dissent in certain cases. He wanted immediate action thereon.

Judge (?) Jones, of Washington, the Knight of the Sorrowful Figure, strenuously objected. He thought that the proper course was, first to refer the matter to a committee for consideration, and he thought the judiciary committee the proper one to entertain the matter.

[Jones generally manages to cut "a sorry figger" in any role he essays, but this time he was right—by accident! as, also, was another ass under similar circumstances to-wit:

A stupid ass one morning went
Into a field by accident,
And cropped his food, and was content
Until he spied by accident,
A flute that some oblivious gent
Had left behind by accident:
And sniffling it with eager scent,
He made the hollow instrument
Emit a sound by accident.
"Hooray! Hooray!" exclaimed the brute,
"How cleverly I play the flute!"
A fool in spite of nature's bent,
May shine for once by accident.]

By accident, Judge Jones' motion prevailed.

Andrews' ordinance taxing concerts, shows, theatricals, &c., was read.

Abbott, Shaker, of New Hampshire, said that the present tax on shows was so high that they could not visit this city, and pay expenses. [A lie from the whole cloth. Everybody knows that the menagerie, at the capitol, is the best paying exhibition ever established in North Carolina.] He moved its adoption.

Welker, old Aminidab Sleek, said ordinances were introduced for the relief of the people, and no action taken thereon; he could not, therefore, consistently encourage shows. He hoped it would be snowed under.

Johnny McDonald, of Chatham, hoped it would not be snowed under. The public liked shows, and he would show to the public that he had given them a fair showing.

Harris, (nigger) of Wake, said he was opposed to vulgar shows, but approved the sort of entertainments given in Tucker Hall, as they were of a high moral and ennobling nature.

Colgrove moved to lay on the table.

Abbott called the previous question.

The house acquiesced, and the ordinance passed—ayes 61, noes 38.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The report of the Judiciary Committee was taken up.

The 5th section was read and adopted.

Section 6 was amended by striking out "House of Representatives" and inserting "House of Commons" in first line, and adopted sections 7, 9, 10, 11, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, and 27, were adopted.

French, the big-footed sutler of Bladen, moved to amend section 28 by adding the words "he shall hold his office for the term of four years." The amendment was carried and the section adopted.

Section 9 was read, and Harris, nigger, of Wake, moved to amend by providing "that the coroner be appointed by the judge."

Mr. Rodman moved to amend by providing "that the coroner be appointed by the Superior Court Clerk." Carried.

The section as amended was adopted.

Candler, the puling infant and sneaking deserter, of Buncombe, moved to insert an additional section, providing for the election of Justices of the Peace by the registered voters of the county, the same to hold office for six years.

At the instance of Mr. Rodman, the "baby" withdrew his motion.

Section 30 was amended by inserting the words "unless otherwise provided for," after the word "Governor," and adopted.

Section 31 adopted.

On motion of Mr. Heaton, of Ohio, the vote on section 26 was reconsidered.

He moved to make the term of Supreme Court Judges eight instead of sixteen years.

Congleton, the old hog thief, of Carteret, offered an amendment to strike out "16 years" and insert "years."

Congleton's amendment did not prevail.

The Tourgee, [the same Tourgee that "registered" (?) a horse in Caswell county—see paragraph in Local column,] moved to amend Heaton's amendment by striking out "16" and inserting "12 years."

Johnny McDonald demanded the ayes and noes.

A vote was had and the amendment went under.

Heaton moved that the word "twelve," in 6th line of the 25th section be stricken out, and the word "six" inserted.

Hood, Egyptian nigger, from Cumberland, moved to amend the amendment by striking out the word "six" and inserting "eight." The amendment was adopted.

The Tourgee moved to strike out the word "eight" in the 11th line and insert "six;" in the 12th line strike out "twelve" and insert "eight." The Tourgee's motion prevailed.

The section passed as amended, and the "varmints" slunk away to their dens.

Call for the National Democratic Convention.

The National Democratic Committee, by virtue of the authority conferred upon them by the last National Democratic Convention, at a meeting held this day this Washington, D. C., voted to hold the next Convention for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States on the 4th day of July, 1868, at 12 o'clock M., in the city of New York.

The basis of representation, as fixed by the last National Democratic Convention, is double the number of Senators and Representatives in Congress of each State under the last apportionment.

Each State is invited to send delegates accordingly.

The New Reconstruction Bill.

An act to amend the act passed March 23, 1867, entitled "An act supplementary to 'An act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States,' passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate their restoration."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That hereafter any election authorized by the act passed March 23, 1867, entitled "An act supplementary to an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, 1867, and to facilitate restoration," shall be decided by a majority of the votes actually cast; and at the election in which the question of the adoption or rejection of any Constitution is submitted, any person duly registered in the State may vote in the election district where he offers to vote, when he has resided therein for ten days next preceding such election, upon presentation of his certificate of registration, his affidavit, or other satisfactory evidence, under such regulations as the district commanders may prescribe.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Constitutional Convention of any of the States mentioned in the acts to which this is amendatory may provide that at the time of voting upon the ratification of the Constitution the registered voters may vote for members of the House of Representatives of the United States, and for all elective officers provided for by the said Constitution; and the same election officers who shall make the return of the votes cast on the ratification or rejection of the Constitution shall enumerate and certify the votes cast for members of Congress."

[The above has passed both Houses, and is now awaiting a veto.]

Railroad Meeting in Moore.

At a public meeting held at the court house in Carthage, on the 20th day of February, 1868, for the purpose of considering the propriety of subscribing stock to the Extension of the Western Railroad as a county subscription, on motion, Col. W. B. Richardson was called to the chair, and Hugh Leach and Richard Street were requested to act as secretaries. Whereupon the following resolutions were adopted:

Be it resolved, That we, the citizens of Moore county, in public meeting assembled, do recommend to the justices of Moore county to hold an extra term of Moore county court, on the 12th day of March next, for the purpose of taking this matter into consideration; and we further recommend to said court to issue county bonds to the amount of two hundred thousand dollars, pledging the faith of the county for the payment of the same, provided said road is located from Egypt along the Cheraw and Coalfields survey to or near the Fayetteville and Western Plank Road, thence the most approved route to the Asheboro' survey; and we pledge ourselves to use all honorable means to carry out and sustain the court in this great enterprise.

Resolved, That the managers of the Western Railroad be requested to send the engineer to examine the line indicated in the foregoing resolution, and to report the same to next meeting of the stockholders.

Resolved, That the President of this meeting appoint the following persons to receive subscriptions to the Extension of the Western Railroad, to-wit: Col. A. A. F. Seawell, S. M. Carter, William M. Black, William McLeod and L. P. Tyson.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the N. C. Presbyterian for publication, with the request that the Fayetteville News, Raleigh and Wilmington papers copy the same.

W. B. RICHARDSON, Chairman.
HUGH LEACH, RICH'D. STREET, } Secretaries.

In conformity with the foregoing resolutions, the Justices are hereby notified to assemble in Extra Session in the Court House in Carthage, on the 12th of March next. The citizens are respectfully requested to attend.

AARON A. F. Seawell, Chm'n.
County Court.

NEWS AND MISCELLANY.

The California legislative assembly has adopted resolutions approving the action of the President and censuring Congress for the course pursued by it. The radical press on the coast generally support Congress. The leading democratic paper of San Francisco calls on the President to declare martial law in the District of Columbia, and suspend civil business, including Congress, till the people can be heard.

Mr. A. G. Newton, formerly proprietor of the Norfolk Atlantic Hotel, has become lessee, for seven years, of the new hotel now being erected in Norfolk.

Major General George A. McCall died at West Chester Tuesday. The deceased organized and commanded the Pennsylvania reserves during the Peninsula campaign, and was captured before Richmond.

Governor Ward, of New Jersey, has vetoed the resolutions withdrawing New Jersey's assent to the fourteenth amendment.

I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.

The committee hopes to be able to submit the articles of impeachment to the House this afternoon.

The Rev. S. H. Tyng, Jr., has been found guilty and sentenced to receive a public admonition from the Bishop.

The New York Herald's special correspondent in Washington sent the following to that paper: Impeachment cannot pass the Senate. Trumbull, Fessenden, Anthony, Sprague, Tipton, Van Winkle, Willey and Sherman will vote against it.

Revocation of Gen. Hancock's Order.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 28.

The following was issued last night:

HEADQ'RS FIFTH MILITARY DISTRICT,
New Orleans, Feb. 27, 1868.

SPECIAL ORDERS, No. 44. } Extract.

By direction of Gen. Grant, so much of paragraph 4, of special orders No. 28, current series, from these headquarters, as removes the aldermen and assistant aldermen of the city of New Orleans therein named for contempt of orders from these headquarters and appoints others in their stead is hereby revoked, and members of the board of aldermen and assistant aldermen removed by it are hereby reinstated, and will resume their duties the same as if the said orders had not been issued. So much of paragraph 2, Special Orders, No. 41, current series from these headquarters as appointed certain members of the boards of aldermen and assistant aldermen of the City of New Orleans in place of persons appointed who had declined, or failed to qualify, is in consequence also revoked.

By command of Maj. Gen. Hancock.

OUR MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.

Senate—A bill was reported abolishing the Bureau of Statistics.

The rules of proceedings in the trial of impeachment cases were presented. Consideration postponed.

One hundred thousand dollars were appropriated to enable the Secretary of the Treasury to defend against claimants for captured and abandoned property in the Court of Claims.

The bill converting the proceeds of captured and abandoned property into the Treasury, passed.

The House bill reimbursing for certain bonds destroyed by fire, passed after considerable opposition.

The proof in this case was clear, the Secretary of the Treasury being able to identify the bonds from charred remains.

The bill regulating the custody and expenditure of public money passed.

It forbids transfer from one bureau to another, and application of surplus in appropriation to deficiency in another. The penalty is imprisonment and fine.

The Civil Appropriation bill was resumed.

The Speaker announced that the Impeachment Committee would probably report articles tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.

Mr. Stanton answers the warrant for false imprisonment. He will attend to it by attorney.

Charles Van Winkle has been nominated as U. S. Marshal for Virginia, vice John Underwood.

The Senate rejected M. N. Wisewell as commissioner of Revenue, to-day.

Leading Alabama Radicals were before the Reconstruction committee yesterday. The Democratic members of the committee urge the immediate presence of leading men from different parts of the State to explain facts regarding the late election. They call for affidavits at once, regarding fraudulent voting.

Impeachment Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.

The following is the manner of procedure in the Impeachment trial: The day after the articles are presented the Senate will resolve itself into a court at one o'clock, a quorum of the Senate constituting a quorum of the Court. After the trial is commenced the court sits daily. Legislation will proceed during recesses of court. The final argument will be made by two on each side, the House having the opening and the closing speech. All orders and decisions will be made by yeas and nays without debate on the part of Senators. Judge Chase presides. The President need not appear in person. The oath of the Senators is as follows: That in all things appertaining to the pending impeachment, I will do impartial justice according to the constitution and laws, so help me God! The court can compel attendance and punish contempt, and may call the army and navy to its support. The court sits with open doors.

Georgia Convention.

ATLANTA, Feb. 28.

Section third of the judiciary department, as adopted to-day, provides that until the General Assembly shall otherwise direct, there shall be a district judge and a district attorney for each Senatorial district in the State, said court to determine all affairs not punishable with death or imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Paragraph one, section eight, provides that judges of the supreme, superior and district courts, the attorney general and district attorneys, shall be appointed by the Governor, a majority of the Senate consenting. Also one justice of the peace to each district, to be elected by the people and serve four years.

Order by Gen. Meade.

AUGUSTA, GA., Feb. 28.

General Meade has issued an order that in the case of the municipal authorities of Savannah, the charges of mal administration not being sustained before military commission by sufficient evidence, the case be dismissed.

PROSPECTUS.

THE

NORTH CAROLINIAN,

A DAILY,

Democratic Newspaper,

PUBLISHED AT

RALEIGH, N. C.

W. A. HEARNE, JOHN W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

The NORTH CAROLINIAN is Democratic in its principles. It is unalterably opposed to Negro Suffrage, Military rule, and Reconstruction upon the basis of Congressional enactment.

Its Editors believe and teach that this is a

WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT,

FRAMED BY THE BRAINS, AND

WON BY THE BLOOD OF WHITE MEN

FOR THE BENEFIT OF WHITE MEN,

AND THAT IT SHOULD BE

CONTROLLED BY WHITE MEN ONLY.

As there is but ONE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION professing these sentiments and committed to their maintenance, the NORTH CAROLINIAN will steadily advocate the abandonment of all other party names and organizations, and yield a hearty co-operation with that organization—the NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN,

Will contain the freshest News, by telegraph and otherwise. Full reports of all Legislative Assemblies will be furnished its readers.

Particular attention will be paid to State news and each number will contain a complete epitome of every incident reported in the State press.

MARKETS will be carefully reported.

The Weekly North Carolinian

Is the largest and handsomest paper in the State and will be filled with choice family reading and selected literary matter.

PRICE OF SUBSCRIPTION:

DAILY, one year,	$8 00
" six months,	4 00
WEEKLY, one year,	2 00
" six months,	1 00

Terms—Cash in advance.

We respectfully request our friends in all portions of the State to interest themselves in our behalf.

RATES OF ADVERTISING LIBERAL.

☞ As the North Carolinian retains the subscription list which it had as a semi-weekly at Wilson, it offers superior inducements to advertisers.

All Communications on business should be addressed to

THOS. J. LEE,
Business Manager.

The North Carolinian.

Raleigh, Saturday, February 29, 1868.

☞ The North Carolinian is published every morning in the building North-East corner of Fayetteville and Harget [illegible]

☞ Entrance under the sign of NICHOLS, GORMAN & NEATHERY, Book and Job Printers.

RADICAL ORTHOGRAPHY.

R. H. Cannon, Radical Republican candidate for Judge of the Superior Court for the 12th Judicial District, makes curious onslaughts on Webster and Worcester. The gentleman, we are informed, invariably spells January and July with a G, and writes bankrupt thusly: b-a-n-K-r-u-p-t.

This man Cannon, in whose hands the Radicals propose to place the property and lives of the people of North Carolina, is grossly ignorant of the law, which he will be called upon to explain. He was so stupidly dull that it required three applications before the Judges of the Supreme Court would grant him license to practice law in the State, and those who know him best say that he has made no perceptible addition to the legal learning possessed at the time.

The material of which Judges are made was wonderfully scarce when such men were selected for the discharge of the delicate and responsible duties they usually perform. Perhaps Mr. Cannon will do as Judge, as he does as Register in Bankruptcy, employ an assistant to do the work for him.

A WHITE MAN'S MEETING IN LENOIR.

The white men of Lenoir held a meeting in Kinston on the 22d inst. J. C. Washington, Esq., presided, and Dr. H. W. Blount was appointed Secretary.

The meeting adopted resolutions endorsing the action of the convention held here on the 5th and 6th instants.

J. C. Washington, H. W. Blount, Dr. J. P. Bryan, S. H. Rountree, W. W. Dunn, L. C. Desmond, Dr. F. A. Woodley, H. F. Granger, S. B. West, Dr. J. A. Hartsfield, A. J. Loftin, Dr. Brown and John F. Wooten, were appointed a County Executive Committee.

John C. Wooten and W. W. Dunn were selected as delegates to represent Lenoir in the District Convention.

From all sections of the State we are constantly receiving evidences of the zeal with which her sons are prosecuting the work of her redemption.

TOO BAD!

Johnny McDonald, of Chatham, having been distanced in the Congressional nomination race by the Arkansas bummer, Deweese, announced himself an independent candidate for Congress on Thursday. On Thursday night, the Radical State Convention, by formal vote, struck his name from the lists of delegates to the Chicago Convention, and read him out of the party.

Where can Mack go? He is a "real nigger man," so declared himself in the Kangaroo Convention, and cannot therefore seek political association with the party of white men in the State. Where shall he go? We suppose Mack will seek the darkness of Egypt, and in the solitude of his home, reflect upon the mutability of human affairs. It was an unkind act, indeed, to reject his claims for those of a scallawag, but he deserves his fate, and we are glad of his snubbing.

CITY AND STATE.

"Quousque tandem abutere nostra patienta, Catalina." (or more appropriately,) [SALLUST.

"Quos Deus vult perdere, prius dementat."

Pray, Mr. Local, what is the matter,
What's the cause of all this clatter,
Noise, and talk, and terrible fuss?
Good Lord! what will become of us?
I hear (for I cant see, you know,)
There really is a wondrous show
Going on every night and day,
In the big State House, up your way.
Some say the beasts have taken the place,
To try to elevate their race,
And change the constitution so
A "nigger" shall be white as snow;
His hands as soft, his hair so fine,
And long, and straight as yours or mine;
And his strong order never-more
Be like a he-goat's as of yore.
No longer stupid, slow, and dull,
The brains (?) within his thick, hard skull
Expand, e'en as the opening flowers
Their petals spread to April showers.
His grisley nose so large and flat,
Shall have a bone (just think of that)
And change to Grecian, pug, or Roman,
As suits the fancy of the showman.
The huge thick lips that form the mouth
Of all the Samboes of the South,
Shrink in thickness and extension;
As prescribed by the Convention.
The dis and den and dem and dar
Become the language, saith the Czar.
But greatest, last and best of all,
That thing, the "Bill of Rights" they call.
If Cuffee takes into his head
A notion he must woo and wed,
He has the right, (so says the bill,)
To woo and marry whom he will.
Be there a woman Southern born,
So lost to shame, lone and forlorn:
So weak, so mean, so low and base,
As to be tempted to disgrace
Herself, her family (?) and name,
To win a (worse than) harlot's fame,
And Cuffee fancies her, he's free
(If she consents his bride to be)
To marry her and then to take
Her home to black his shoes, and bake
His bread and wash his rags,
Brush his black wool, comb out the tags,
And ——. But enough! The curtain falls;
The scene disgusts, the sight appalls.

* * * * * * * *

Pause! Oh, ye white men, and beware;
The sword hangs o'er you by a hair.
Rise! To the polls! your votes enroll,
And save the State from such control;
Unfurl and spread from rock to sea
The Banner of Democracy.

Yours, &c.,
BLIND TIMOTHY.

POST-SCRIPTUM—

To Messrs. Dunham, Hearne and Lee
I write for you, not fame, you see;
And if, perchance, my Doggerel
Don't suit your fancy very well;
Reject, return, expunge, amend;
My muse you'll not at all offend.
"The animals" a worn out theme
Run into the ground 'twould seem;
And yet a fruitful subject still
To rhyme or prose upon at will.
For ev'ry day there's something new
The Africans bring int' view.
'Wil scores of monkeys or of geese—
Amusing things can never cease.
Their antics, attitudes and grace
Would occupy a wondrous space,
And take a deal of paint and ink
To do them justice, don't you think?
But if my rhyme becomes a bore
Say so, and I'll write no more.

Yours, BLIND TIM.

Meeting of Railroad Officials.

A meeting of the officers of the North Carolina, the Raleigh & Gaston, and the Wilmington & Weldon Railroads, was held in this city on yesterday, for the purpose of furthering the interests of said companies; and, we learn that an amicable arrangement was effected between the North Carolina and the Raleigh & Gaston Roads for the shipment of freight—over the latter Road—the Raleigh & Gaston agreeing to pay the North Carolina Road the same profit as if the shipment was made via Goldsboro. This is a very profitable arrangement to the N. C. Road, and reflects credit on its managers, and at the same time is a saving of time and distance in the transmission of freight, whilst it is an advantageous arrangement to the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, a corporation in whose success, the welfare of all this portion of the State is identified.

Jesse Holmes,

The Fool Killer, is now on his way here, armed with a huge club, for the purpose of paying his "respecks" to the Smelfungus-Mundungus Konvenshun now assembled at the capitol. He will probably reach the city about the middle of next week.

In the meantime, Jones, of Washington, Johnny McDonald, Eppes, Candler, and other asses would do well to practice "dodging," for Jesse generally strikes "heavy," and when he does hit, somebody's "sleeved," sure.

C. L. Harris,

Of Wake, is the regular nominee of the carpet-baggers for the office of Superintendent of Public Works, for the State of North Carolina!

We are willing to wager a hat-ful of "stamps" that if a forty horse steam engine were placed alongside our printing press, Harris couldn't, for the life of him, "tell 'tother from which."

Who will take the bet?

Since the Nomination

Of Sammy Watts for a Judgeship in this District, real estate hereabouts has gone down twenty-five per cent.

Wm. Wright Parker was hanged in the city of Wilmington yesterday, in expiation of the crime of murder committed in the year 1863. Before his death he made a full confession of his guilt, from which it appears that he was an unwilling accomplice of one Van Runciman, a most desperate man, who died, from wounds received in a drunken row, in the jail of New Hanover county, where he had been imprisoned on a charge of highway robbery. Parker's confession states that Runciman, Childress, who was the victim, Dunn and himself were at the house of an abandoned woman on the suburbs of the city drinking, when Runciman proposed to go to another house just out of the city. They all consented save Dunn. Runciman led the way and carried the party into the woods. Arriving there, Parker, who had fallen behind, saw Runciman and Childress struggling; and assisted by Runciman's request, in robbing Childress.

After robbing Childress, fearing detection, Runciman determined to murder him, and called on Parker to strike him with a stick which he had in his hand. Parker begged for Childress' life but Runciman replied: "Night has no eyes and dead men tell no tales." Runciman then gave Parker his knife and commanded him to strike him with it. Parker obeyed, but failing to kill his victim, Runciman took the knife and stabbed him seven or eight times fatally.

The body was thrown into a creek near by, and the murderers were unsuspected, we believe until some months ago, when suspicions were aroused by careless words spoken by Parker.—He was arrested, tried and convicted, and sentenced to death. He appealed to the Supreme Court. That body sustained the sentence of the Criminal Court of New Hanover. Parker professed repentance and was baptized some days before his death. He was quite a young man, having scarcely attained his majority. He owes his sad fate to dissolute habits and bad companions. Let it be a warning to the young men of the State.

Dental.

If any of our readers are curious to understand the masticating arrangements of the gorilla, let them visit the Capitol Menagerie this morning, and examine the mouth of Henry Chillson, "diligit" from Anson. Jehosaphat, what incisors! They set like the blade of a cross-cut saw, or the stakes in a Yankee stockade, and are nicely adapted, his landlady says, for grinding the enormous amount of commissary stores requisite to the full-filling of his marvelously capacious paunch.

Du Chaillu says the stomach of the African gorilla can accommodate about 6 pounds, avoidupois, of solid food; our Anson specimen generally takes on eight, (if he can get it,) and, then, like Oliver Twist, often cries for "more."

Col. Walter L. Steel, of Richmond county, addressed the citizens of Wilmington Thursday night. The Journal says "the assemblage was the largest and most enthusiastic one we have seen gathered in the old court house for the consideration of questions involving the public welfare in many a day." Col. Steele delivered a most forcible and convincing address maintaining the great principle for which the Democratic party North is battling—the right of the white men of the nation to control it.

At the conclusion of his remarks, the Hon. S. J. Person, of Wilmington, addressed the meeting in a brief but most telling speech.

The good men of the State are moving, and under the inspiration of truth and justice they will win the victory despite all opposition.

Who stole Jesse Fuller's horse last November? If we mistake not Tourgee passed through that neighborhood about that time, registering voters, but Mr. Tourgee is an "honorable man"—a "loil" delegate in convention assembled, framing us a "Konstitushun," and we do not pretend to say that he "registered" the horse, but he may have registered the man that stole him, though we wouldn't swear—even if we could swallow the iron-clad—that Tourgee never saw the horse.—Milton Chronicle.

The young ladies and gentlemen of St. John's Church, Fayetteville, gave a vocal and instrumental consert in that town, last week, for the benefit of the charity school of the parish. The News speaks in complimentary terms of the entertainment. The proceeds amounted to more than one hundred dollars.

The Radical-Republican Convention expressed its preference for Gen. U. S. Grant for President and the Hon. B. F. Wade, for Vice President.—These are their chosen leaders. In a recent conversation concerning the prospects of the party, old Ben exclaimed: we are going to hell, sir!

Follow your leaders, Rads!

Mr. Joseph B. Underwood, of Fayetteville, has invented a safety lamp for use on railroads. The inventor claims to have so constructed the lamp as to prevent any danger from fire in case of accident. A patent will be applied for by Mr. Underwood.

PROSPECTUS OF THE WESTERN VINDICATOR.

On or before the 1st of March, prox., the undersigned will commence the publication of a weekly newspaper bearing the above title, in the town of Rutherfordton, N. C.

The Western Vindicator, as its name signifies, will be devoted to the support of Western interests and the dissemination of useful intelligence, selected with especial reference to the wants of the section it will labor to represent.

Politically, it will, for the present, adhere to no party organization; but will give a cheerful support to all measures looking to the speedy restoration of the Union, the preservation of the Constitution intact, the supremacy of the white race, and the perpetuity of Republican liberty in America.

The "Vindicator" will have a larger circulation in Rutherford, Polk and Cleaveland counties than any other newspaper. Advertising rates low.

Terms—$2 per annum.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinnated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well. Yours truly,

J. B. DANIEL.

CHRONIC LIVER COMPLAINT CURED.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address G. W. DEEMS,

Raleigh, Saturday, February 29, 1868.

The President's Messages.

We present the following abstract of the President's Message from the Richmond Dispatch:

The President on Monday sent back to the Senate the message previously sent on Saturday, but which reached the capitol after the adjournment of the Senate. One of them nominates Hon. Thomas Ewing, Sr., of Ohio, to be Secretary of War. The other is a reply to the Senate resolution of Friday night relative to the appointment of General Thomas as Secretary of War ad interim. The latter is a lengthy document, covering thirty-seven pages of foolscap. The crowded state of our columns compels us to present an abstract of its contents.

The President briefly refers to the fact that each of his predecessors had exercised the prerogative of removal, and that the Supreme Court had decided that the authority was lodged in the Executive by the Constitution. He then says:

It is only necessary, then, that I should refer to the power of the Executive, under the laws of the United States, to remove from the office a Secretary of War. The resolution denies that under these laws this power has any existence; in other words, it affirms that no such authority is recognized or given by the statutes of the country.

What, then, are the laws of the United States which deny the President the power to remove that officer? I know but two laws which bear upon this question. The first in the order of time is the act of August 7, 1789, creating the Department of War, which, after providing for a secretary as its principal officer, proceeds as follows:

"SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That there shall be in the said Department an inferior officer, to be appointed by the said principal officer, to be employed therein as he shall deem proper, and to be called the chief clerk in the Department of War, and who, whenever the said principal officer shall be removed from office by the President of the United States, or in any other case of vacancy, shall, during such vacancy, have the charge and custody of all records, books, and papers, appertaining to the said Department."

It is clear that this act, passed by a Congress many of whose members participated in the formation of the constitution, so far from denying the power of the President to remove the Secretary of War, recognizes it as existing in the Executive alone, without the concurrence of the Senate or any other department of the government. Furthermore, this act does not purport to confer the power by legislative authority, nor in fact was there any other existing legislation through which it was bestowed upon the Executive. The recognition of the power by this act is therefore complete as a recognition under the constitution itself; for there was no other source or authority from which it could be derived.

He then quotes the first section of the civil tenure act of March 2, 1867, and in reference to its concluding proviso says:

The proviso that follows proceeds to fix the term of office of the seven heads of departments, whose tenure never had been defined before, by prescribing that they "shall hold their offices respectively for and during the term of the President by whom they may have been appointed, and for one month thereafter, subject to removal by and with the advice and consent of the Senate." Thus, as to these enumerated offices, the proviso takes from the President the power of removal, except with the advice and consent of the Senate. By its terms, however, before he can be deprived of the power to displace them, it must appear that he himself has appointed them. It is only in that case that they have any tenure of office, or any independent right to hold during the term of the President and for one month after the cessation of his official functions. The proviso, therefore, gives no tenure of office to any one of these officers who has been appointed by a former President beyond one month after the accession of his successor.

He further states that the only appointment ever conferred upon Mr. Stanton as Secretary of War was that conferred by Mr. Lincoln; and after noting the distinction between members of the Cabinet and other civil officers established by the proviso above alluded to, says:

The consequence is, that as to my Cabinet, embracing the seven officers designated in the first section, the act takes from me the power, without the concurrence of the Senate, to remove any of them that I have appointed; but it does not protect such of them as I did not appoint, nor give to them any tenure-of-office beyond my pleasure. * * * * *

It would be a violation of the plain meaning of this enactment to place Mr. Stanton upon the same footing as those heads of departments who have been appointed by myself. As to him, this law gives him no tenure-of-office. The members of my Cabinet who have been appointed by me are by this act entitled to hold for one month after the term of my office shall cease; but Mr. Stanton could not, against the wishes of my successor, hold a moment thereafter.

He asserts that under this construction of the tenure-of-office act he has never doubted his power to remove Mr. Stanton, but says that, owing to doubts which existed as to the construction of the law, he, from the first, "deemed it desirable that at the earliest possible moment those doubts should be settled, and the true construction of the act fixed by decision of the Supreme Court of the United States. My order of suspension in August last was intended to place the case in such a position as would make a resort to judicial decision both necessary and proper. My understanding and wishes, however, under that order of suspension, were frustracted, and the late order for Mr. Stanton's removal was a further step towards the accomplishment of that purpose."

In respect to so much of the resolution as relates to the designation of an officer to act as Secretary of War ad interim, I have only to say that I have exercised this power under the provisions of the first section of the act of February 13, 1795, which, so far as they are applicable to vacancies caused by removals, I understand to be still in force.

The legislation upon the subject of ad interim appointments in the executive departments stands, as to the War Office, as follows:

"The second section of the 7th of August, 1789, makes provision for a vacancy in the very case of a removal of the head of the War Department, and upon such a vacancy gives the charge and custody of the records, books, and papers, to the chief clerk."

Next, by the act of the 8th of May, 1792, section 8, it is provided that in case of vacancy occasioned by death, absence from the seat of government, or sickness of the head of the War Department, the President may authorize a person to perform the duties of the office until a successor is appointed or the disability removed. The act, it will be observed, does not provide for the case of a vacancy caused by removal.

Then, by the first section of the act of February 13, 1775, it is provided that in case of any vacancy the President may appoint a person to perform the duties while the vacancy exists.

He then quotes the act of the 20th of February, 1863, which says, "with some modifications, re-enacts the act of 1792, and provides, as did that act, for the sort of vacancies so to be filled; but, like the act of 1792, it makes no provision for a vacancy occasioned by removal. It has reference altogether to vacancies arising from other causes. According to my construction of the act of 1863, while it impliedly repeals the act of 1792 regulating the vacancies therein described, it has no bearing whatever upon so much of the act of 1795 as applies to a vacancy caused by removal. The act of 1795, therefore, furnishes the rule for a vacancy occasioned by removal—one of the vacancies expressly referred to in the act of the 7th of August, 1789, creating the Department of War." After discussing the question whether the act of 1863 repeals that of 1865, he says:

It may be, however, that in this, as in other cases of implied repeal, doubts may arise. It is confessedly one of the most subtle and debatable questions which arise in the construction of statutes. If, upon such a question, I have fallen into an erroneous construction, I submit whether it should be characterized as a violation of official duty and of law.

The message concludes as follows:

I have deemed it proper in vindication of the course which I have considered it my duty to take, to place before the Senate the reasons upon which I have based my action. Although I have been advised by every member of my Cabinet that the entire tenure-of-office act is unconstitutional, and therefore void, and although I have expressly concurred in that opinion in the veto message which I had the honor to submit to Congress when I returned the bill for reconsideration, I have refrained from making a removal of any officer contrary to the provisions of the law, and have only exercised that power in the case of Mr. Stanton, which, in my judgment, did not come within its provisions. I have endeavored to proceed with the greatest circumspection, and have acted only in an extreme and exceptional case, carefully following the course which I have marked out for myself, as a general rule, faithfully to execute all laws, though passed over my objections on the score of constitutionality. In the present instance I have appealed, or sought to appeal, to that final arbiter fixed by the Constitution for the determination of all such questions. To this course I have been impelled by the solemn obligations which rest upon me to sustain inviolate the powers of the high office committed to my hands. Whatever may be the consequences merely personal to myself I could not allow them to prevail against a public duty so clear to my own mind and so imperative. If what was possible had been certain; if I had been fully advised when I removed Mr. Staunton that in thus defending the trust committed to my hands my own removal was sure to follow, I could not have hesitated, actuated by public considerations of the highest character. I earnestly protest against the resolution of the Senate which charges me, in what I have done, with a violation of the Constitution and laws of the United States. ANDREW JOHNSON.

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.

NOTICE TO SHIPPERS OF SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

The Seaboard Inland Air Line, Via Portsmouth, Va., is now prepared to ship Spirits Turpentine to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, its steamers having bern arranged for that purpose.

This Air Line Route, from the fact of its avoiding transshipment from one Steamer to another, to which other lines are subject, and being the direct line between the Carolinas and the Northern Cities, with daily communication to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, and to Boston a Steamer every five days, offers great facilities for shipping, and is in advance of all other routes from three to five days and at as low rates.

In shipping from the Northern Cities, or from Carolina, be careful to ship via Portsmouth, and by the Steamship Lines connecting with and forming part of this Route.

From Boston, Merchants and Miner's Line, E. Sampson, Agent, end Central Wharf.

From New York, Old Dominion Steamship Company, Pier 37, North river, M. L. McCready President, Office 187 Greenwich street.

From Philadelphia, Clyde Steamers, 14 South Delaware Avenue, W. P. Clyde, Agent.

Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, J. L. Wilson, Agent.

From Baltimore, Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock, R. L. Poor, Agent.

All claims for loss, damage, or overcharge, promptly settled by applying to
JAS. MCCARRICK, Trace Agent,
Seaboard Inland Air Line, Portsmouth, Va.

The Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad and Bay Line, having been consolidated under one Management from Weldon to Baltimore, offer greater facilities to shippers of freight to and from Baltimore than any other line, and guarantees safety of freight and prompt settlement of all claims.

S. A. STEVENS,

JOHNSON'S HALL,

MAIN STREET, NORFOLK, VIRGINIA.

We call special attention to our Fine Stock of

PAPER-HANGINGS,

CORNICES AND CURTAIN GOODS.

Our stock of the above goods is one of the most

COMPLETE AND EXTENSIVE

South of New York. It embraces all grades and the most RECENT STYLES.

Our prices are as low as can be purchased North, and we most respectfully solicit a call. We hold out extra inducements to Country Merchants, and we can fill orders on the most accommodating terms.

OUR CARPET AND OIL CLOTH DEPARTMENT

is on the lower floor—our store being 30 feet wide and 175 feet deep, and our stock comprises all grades of goods in this line, from the very cheapest Domestic to the very finest Brussels or Velvet Carpeting. We can offer especial inducements to Merchants—we will sell Carpets, Oil Cloths, &c., as low as any house in the country. We have our goods manufactured especially for us with particular regard to the style and quality best suited to our trade.

Our stock of

FLOOR AND TABLE OIL CLOTH

is the finest in this State. We have constantly on hand all widths, from 18 inches wide to 24 feet wide.

OUR FURNITURE WARE-ROOMS

are on the second floor. Our main room is the Hall, which is the handsomest and largest exhibition room in the South. It is 150 feet long by 60 feet wide. There we display the greatest variety of Household Furniture to be found South of Philadelphia, and we guarantee to compete in price, style and quality of work with any house in the country.

We call especial notice to our

PAPER-HANGING AND WINDOW SHADE DEPARTMENT.

We are constantly in receipt of all the west designs of both Foreign and Domestic Papers.

BORDERS AND FIRE SCREENS, SHADES, constantly on hand and made to order.

Our facilities for business are unsurpassed by any house, either North or South, and we invite the attention of housekeepers and the trade to our establishment, as we feel confident they will not fail to satisfy themselves that the above goods can be purchased on as favorable terms as at the North. Very Respectfully,
S. A. STEVENS,

PROSPECTUS OF THE WESTERN VINDICATOR.

On or before the 1st of March, prox., the undersigned will commence the publication of a weekly newspaper bearing the above title, in the town of Rutherfordton, N. C.

The Western Vindicator, as its name signifies, will be devoted to the support of Western interests and the dissemination of useful intelligence, selected with especial reference to the wants of the section it will labor to represent.

Politically, it will, for the present, adhere to no party organization; but will give a cheerful support to all measures looking to the speedy restoration of the Union, the preservation of the Constitution intact, the supremacy of the white race, and the perpetuity of Republican liberty in America.

The "Vindicator" will have a larger circulation in Rutherford, Polk and Cleaveland counties than any other newspaper. Advertising rates low.

Terms—$3 per annum.
